

Monday (9/13)

American government (1st and 2nd blocks) - Students will work together to make posters about the Articles of Confederation and then present them to the class.

World History (4th block) - the students will use timelines to fill out charts on the history of government and conflict in Afghanistan.

Homework : Edpuzzle on The Soviet Union in Afghanistan

Tuesday (9/14)

American government (1st and 4th blocks) - Students will receive their books Just Mercy and will learn about the writing assignments on them. The students will then share their political cartoons on Marbury v Madison. The class will discuss the details and significance of the Marbury v Madison case.

Homework due : Political cartoons on Marbury v Madison

Homework : Start working on the assignment for Just Mercy

World History (2nd block) - the students will research people associated with the age of anxiety and present them in class on Thursday.

Wednesday (9/15)

American government (1st and 2nd block) : The students will read the Declaration of Independence and rewrite it in their own words. The class will discuss the ideas of the Declaration of Independence.

Homework : Prepare for their Unit 2 test that is on Monday 9/20.

World history (4th block) : The students will take a quiz on the Soviet Union in Afghanistan and then will have a lesson on 9/11 and America's recent involvement in Afghanistan.

Homework : Prepare for their Unit 2 test that is on Monday 9/20.

Thursday (9/16)

American government (1st and 4th block) : the students will read about how the Supreme Court operates and write an acrostic poem on the Supreme Court.

World history (2nd block) : The students will present their reports on figures from the Age of Anxiety

Friday (9/17) B day

American government (1st and 4th blocks) - we will have a brief current event discussion in class (students can come to class with a topic in mind or the teacher will have a topic to discuss). The students will then review for their test on the Judiciary that they will have on Tuesday 9/21.

Homework : study for the test on Tuesday and complete writing reflections on Just Mercy

World History (2nd block) : we will have a brief current event discussion in class (students can come to class with a topic in mind or the teacher will have a topic to discuss). The students will then review for their test on the Age of Anxiety that they will have on Tuesday 9/21.

Homework : study for the test on Tuesday